

1- First page of the form :

*did you have 1 or more property?

*location of the property (town, qwater)

*fix rendez-vous (by tchecking the content of the email) and send it to the lanlord.

is the apartment are furnished or non-furnished ?

*Did you find a new tenant or you already have one?

*the approximative area of the apartment

*the approximative amount of the renting.

Nb: base on the previous informations that the landlord has provided, the app should generate an approximative amount range on the property

2- Second page of the form

*form verification and validation

* redirect button ->to the 'proprietaire dashboard account where he can :

- list the different properties that he want us to manage

- add a new property

-upload the important document of the properties

-call the client service

add some pictures of his properties. etc...